

ANXIOUS FOR CHANGE IN MOON

Farmers' Crops Rotting in the Ground from Constant Wet Weather.

AN ARCHITECT ASSIGNS

The Glamorgan Foundries to Build a Branch at South Norfolk.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, Va., August 17.—Among all the heavy rains that have fallen in this section in the last six weeks, that of last night, in the Deep Creek section was one of the heaviest, and to-day corn and other fields were submerged.

The fall potato crop is rotting in the ground, and kale seed sown recently are in the ditches and other places, having been washed there by the rains. Late corn is being badly damaged, and the farmers are uneasy. Their hope now is that the change of the moon on Sunday next will cause the rain to cease.

C. F. Holtzclaw, an architect, of Hampton, Va., filed a petition in bankruptcy to-day. His liabilities are placed at $20,114.55. According to the petition he has no assets, except $175 worth of household furniture and wearing apparel, on which he claims exemption. None of the claims against him is secured. His principal creditors are E. M. Tiley, of Berkeley Ward, Norfolk, on a promissory note, $3,248; D. S. Jones, Newport News, judgment, $4,850; John Miller, of Washington, judgment, $2,117; E. D. Crook, of Baltimore, promissory note, $2,000; R. M. Dozier, of Hampton, judgment, $1,000; George Booker, of Hampton, judgment, $800; J. V. S. Klapp, of Washington, promissory note, $600, and S. B. Shield & Bro., of Washington, open account, $194.

Most all of the petitioner's debts were contracted at the Chamberlin Hotel, Old Point Comfort, and were made when the petitioner was in partnership with his brother, W. B. Holtzclaw. Holtzclaw Brothers went into bankruptcy about six years ago.

Work on the extensive plant of the Glamorgan foundry, in South Norfolk, will begin shortly.

Several months ago the Glamorgan Company purchased twenty-nine acres of land on the Belt Line. The land extends from the railroad to the Southern Branch of the Elizabeth River, thus affording excellent shipping facilities both by water and rail. The plant will cover about fourteen acres of ground and about 600 skilled men will be employed on it.

The Glamorgan foundries are among the largest of their kind in the United States.

ROANOKE BAPTISTS.

Heavy Rains Failed to Keep Attendance Down at Association.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHATHAM, Va., August 17.—The Roanoke Baptist Association, which met with the Chatham Baptist Church, near Chalk Level, Tuesday, came to a close Thursday afternoon after one of the most successful and pleasant sessions of that body in its history.

The session was called to order by the retiring moderator, Mayor J. H. Hargrave Jr., of this place, who was re-elected to the same office at the afternoon meeting of the first day, with Mr. Joseph B. Anderson, of Danville, as clerk, and Mr. C. L. Davenport, of Chatham, as treasurer. The introductory sermon was delivered by Rev. William H. Bradley, of Danville.

The numerous reports before the body evoked much interesting discussion, especially "Temperance," which lasted for some time.

Contributions to all of the boards were forwarded last year, except to Education and the Orphanage. Of the forty-five churches of the association, all were represented but two, and the reports were very flattering, both spiritually and financially. The association church membership numbers nearly 600.

The weather was very threatening every day, but this did not keep the usual large crowds away. Boundless expresses the hospitality, and every provision had been made to add to the comfort of those present.

The association next year will meet with Ringwood Baptist Church, about six miles from Danville.

DISAPPOINTED $2 WORTH.

Woman Sued for Failing to Pay a Promised Visit.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

STROUDSBURG, Pa., August 17.—Joseph Green and his wife, of Jackson Township, came to town about a week ago and bought goods in Godrich's store, Mrs. Green, and Mrs. Godrich, got angry, and Mrs. Godrich promised Mrs. Green that she would soon visit her in the country.

As a result of the failure to pay the promised visit, Squire Hancy of Kutztown, was yesterday obliged to listen to evidence to decide whether or not the Greens were liable to $2 damages for their disappointment. The squire decided in the negative.

Minister Called.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

LYNCHBURG, Va., August 17.—Rev. George P. Craighill, assistant rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, of Roanoke, and son of Mrs. George Peyton Craighill, of this city, has just been extended a call to the rectorship of the Trinity Episcopal Church, at South Boston. While it is not known, it is hardly believed that the call will be accepted.

Mr. Craighill last spring declined a very flattering call to go to Louisville, Ky.

King William Sick.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

RTNA MILLS, Va., August 17.—J. N. Frank, who fell a week into a distance of ten feet eight inches in the basement of his mill, and was thought to be fatally injured, is improving.

Bradley Atkinson, son of I. L. Atkinson, who was brought from Richmond ten days ago, is critically ill at his father's with typhoid fever.

TORTURED BY ITCHING ECZEMA

Suffered Tremendous Itching Over Whole Body—Scratched Until Bled—Worse at Night, With Soreness and Excruciating Pains—A Western Lady's

WONDERFUL CURE BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"Last year at this time I suffered with a tremendous itching on my back, which grew worse and worse, until it spread over the whole body, and only my face and hands were free. For four months or so I suffered the torments of the damned, and I had to scratch, scratch, scratch, until I bled. At night when I went to bed things got worse, and I had at times to get up and scratch my body all over, until I was as sore as could be, and until I suffered excruciating pains. I did not know what it was, and resorted to a number of blood purifiers, using at times also Cuticura Soap. They told me then that I was suffering from eczema. Then I made up my mind that I would also use Cuticura Ointment and Cuticura Resolvent. I used them according to instructions, and very soon indeed I was greatly relieved. I continued until well, and now I am ready to recommend the Cuticura Remedies to any one who suffers as did your obedient servant. Mrs. Mary Metzger, Sweetwater, Okla., June 28, 1905."

TORTURING, DISFIGURING Humors, Eczemas, and Itchings Cured by Cuticura

The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of scalp, as in scalded head—all demand a remedy of almost superhuman virtues to successfully cope with them. That Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills are such stands proven beyond all doubt.

Sold throughout the world. Cuticura Soap, 25c. Ointment, 50c. Resolvent, 50c. (in form of Chocolate Coated Pills, 50c. per box) of all druggists or sent by mail for $1.00. Single sets of Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills, 50c. per box. Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills, 50c. per box. Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills, 50c. per box.

A MEMORIAL IN CUMBERLAND

Splendid Marble Tablet Unveiled in the County Court-house.

DINNER AND FINE SPEECHES

Congressman Flood Pays High Tribute to the Valor of Cumberland Soldiers.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CUMBERLAND, C. H., Va., August 17.—A handsome marble tablet was unveiled in the courthouse here Thursday to the Confederate dead of Cumberland county. A large crowd braved the rain, among whom were the survivors of the Cumberland Troop.

The tablet is a handsome marble one, and occupies a space to the left of the judge's bench in the courtroom, and is a memorial to the dead erected by the survivors of the Cumberland Troop.

The exercises of the morning were begun by Commander John L. Brooks calling the meeting to order, followed by prayer by Commander James B. Clarke.

Dr. W. L. Robinson, of Danville, an old trooper, then introduced Miss Annie Palmer, whose father was once the captain of the troop, and she read a poem by Mrs. Duval Porter, of Pittsylvania.

An eloquent address was delivered by Congressman Flood, his subject being "Love of Country."

After a recess, in which a delightful dinner was served in the courthouse and on the spacious veranda, the exercises were resumed by an address from Major Venable, of Charlottesville, who spoke of the brave charges led by Captain Matthews, who fell in battle.

He also impressed upon the teachers of Virginia to give correct and unbiased history to the children. He referred to the inspiration derived from the words of the women, and their valuable assistance in erecting monuments to the dead.

After Major Venable concluded the tablet was unveiled. This was followed by an eloquent address by Congressman Flood, who spoke for an hour. Mr. Flood made a beautiful reference to the brave charges at Mitchell's Shop, and gave a glowing tribute to those who fell in that battle for the love of Virginia.

KING WILLIAM PEOPLE DENY THREATS

No One Made Any Demonstration and Sympathy Was Shown the Boys.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ETNA, N. J., August 17.—The people of the Manahock neighborhood, where McNeil and Elmore held up the Powell Brothers in their store Saturday night, the 11th instant, and robbed them of $25.00, are indignant at the false report that the people would hang the King William boys.

Your correspondent has been with the people ever since the occurrence, and not one word has been heard of lynching. As far as can be learned only one man said that he was ready to pull the rope, and that man is one of the kind who "talks much," but he would be the last man to take hold.

When the prisoners arrived at Manahock there was a large crowd, but not a whisper was heard about having them lynched. After the trial one of the Powell boys held up, took them to his home and gave them something to eat. Much sympathy was felt for the boys when the boys asked Magistrate McGee to read the law as to the penalty.

Remarks, the negro magistrate who had given the warrant, very gracefully turned the trial over to the white magistrates, Richard McGee and Richard Fox.

The King William people want it understood that they are law-abiding citizens.

MANY INQUIRIES AS TO UNKNOWN

Mrs. Sue Smith, of Danville, Thought It Might Be Her Long-Missing Husband.

BIG IRON GIRDERS ARRIVE

To Make the Railroad Bridge Over the Diversion Channel.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PETERSBURG, Va., August 17.—Inquiries are still coming in relative to the unknown stranger who recently met an accidental death in this city. They have come from Maryland, West Virginia, Virginia and even from the section around Petersburg, all giving descriptions of missing men, and anxiously asking for information.

From none of these descriptions, however, can the dead man be identified. In the majority of cases, it is a father or son who has been lost to the family. The stranger, among other things, in his pockets, had a pasted ticket issued in Richmond to "Mr. Smith." To-day Mrs. Sue Smith, of Danville, writes, telling of the disappearance of her son in March last, of whom she has not since heard, and in touching terms begs to know if he might not be the unknown man. But she describes the man as being tall, and the description she gives does not tally, and her anxiety will be relieved. The number of "lost" men is surprisingly large.

At the administrator's sale of the personal estate of the late Chas. E. Young, in Dinwiddie county, yesterday, some rare old furniture was sold, which brought high prices. It was mainly bought by relatives to be preserved in the family.

The huge steel girders for the new bridge of the Atlantic Coast Line Company, which is to span the diversion channel just north of the city, have arrived. They are sixty feet in length and eleven tons each in weight. The new bridge, which is to be double-tracked, will supersede the present road embankment, which is to be removed in digging the channel.

Collector Camp reports $31,000 of the first half of the city taxes for this year, due on August 10th, as having been paid in, which makes a handsome addition to the already large cash balance in the city treasury.

Large shipments of leaf tobacco, some for export, have been made from this city to New York within the last few days. The monthly shipments of manufactured tobacco for export are always large. These go through the custom house under bond.

Mr. C. C. Alley, one of our most prominent mechanics, who was recently severely injured by a fall, is out again, but on crutches.

Miss Virginia Bull, daughter of Mr. Bull, the courteous agent of the Southern Express Company in this city, has been very ill for some days of typhoid fever. Her condition was thought to be more favorable to-day.

Special Revenue Agent Sewell yesterday visited the Internal Revenue office in this city and found it all right.

United States Marshal Bart, returned from Dinwiddie county this afternoon, having in custody the colored boy, Sany Shand, aged fourteen or fifteen years, who is under arrest charged with stealing registered letters from the mails on the route between Trout Run and Sny Creek, while acting as substitute for his father. The boy was taken before Commissioner Roper, and bailed in the sum of $800 for his appearance for examination at 1 o'clock to-morrow.

Abram Glass returned this morning from Washington, where he had been visiting his children, and says that on going to his home on River street, his wife refused to allow him to stay there. Mrs. Glass says she is treated badly by her husband, and so trouble arose between the two, which ended some excitement in the neighborhood, and the matter will be brought to the attention of the Mayor to-morrow.

Radford Fair.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

RADFORD, Va., August 17.—Manager Fox and President Vaughan are working hard for the success of the fair to be held here by the Southwest Virginia Agricultural and Live Stock Association, September 11th, 12th, 13th and 14th. At a well attended meeting of the Executive Committee, held Wednesday, many details of their plans were arranged.

A poultry building is to be erected at once, and entries for Rockland, England, and other distant points are promised. Henry W. Burress, an experienced turkman of Baltimore, has been engaged as starting judge in the races. Two hundred special premiums have been secured, besides the association premiums.

Fredericksburg Notes.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., August 17.—Mr. B. A. Alop and Miss Mollie Chevington, both of Spotsylvania county, came here yesterday and were married at the Methodist parsonage, Rev. J. H. Light officiating.

Mr. A. M. Garner was last night unanimously elected a member of the City Council, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late W. L. Watson.

Wags: "The trouble with Quizzler is that he never sticks to a subject for a week." Wags: "Nonsequel! He has stuck pretty closely to his present gag for over a month."

BRILLIANT PROSPECT FOR THE UNIVERSITY

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., August 17.—At the University of Virginia to-day it was stated that the prospects were exceedingly bright for a large attendance of students in the coming session, which opens September 18th. In the opinion of Secretary Price, who has made a pretty close study of the situation, the enrollment will reach 600 or over. Last season's total, the largest in the history of the institution, was 725.

Word has been received from McKim, Meade and White, of New York, the architects for the new residence for President Alderman and for the mass hall, that the plans for these structures are nearly complete and will soon be forwarded to the University.

It is now believed that work on the two buildings will begin next month.
